This fundraising project, by the STC OBA in Melbourne, will help provide a Thomian education to deserving students in Sri Lanka..

President's Message

I was struggling to distract myself from the holiday festivities to pen this address to the Thomian fraternity in Melbourne... Given that this was to be my last missive as President of the OBA, I wanted to make it count. Where do I start? What do I say?

Fortunately, the Editor stepped in and asked me about my New Year resolutions and the penny dropped. I had, direction.

We Thomians are big on tradition and sometimes indulge in looking back to pat ourselves and so we miss the opportunity to look forward to chart a course for those that follow in our footsteps. Don't get me wrong, I've enjoyed my two year term as President of the OBA. There are times that I've felt that I've stood on the shoulders of Giants and that feeling motivates you to work harder and scale new heights. Ultimately, our success in these honorary roles is measured by what comes next, not in what we've done or claim to have done. So, with that sentiment in mind, I've decided that in the year to come, I'm going to work as hard as I can to ensure that the next President of the OBA has a better result than I've had by every measure. With a view to focusing my efforts, I thought I'd share my top five resolutions for the year to come:

- 1. I will help the next STC OBA President sell tickets and attract sponsors so that the 'Thomian Ball' and the 'Spring Carnival Dance' are more successful than they ever have been. If these two events succeed, the OBA will have even more funds at its disposal to fund OBA events and, more importantly, to help the four schools in the Thomian family (Prep, Guru, Bandarawela and Mount)
- 2. I will make more phone calls to Old Thomians in Melbourne so that the OBA can count on more dues paying members.
- 3. I will help the Ex-Co's Editor produce more issues of the Thomiana and also have a more engaging website and Facebook presence
- 4. I will attend and support as many of the events organised by the new Ex-Co, so that they feel that their efforts are rewarded
- 5. I will canvass new members, especially those in their 40s and 50s

In the process of thinking through my new resolutions, I realised that I'm only following in the footsteps of others before me. When I first offered to lead the OBA in Melbourne, I did so with encouragement from several old Thomians in Melbourne. I'm especially grateful to several past-presidents who rose to the occasion when I solicited their support to raise funds, sell tickets, make phone calls, etc. Particularly, Past-Presidents Rajan Hensman, Arasu Sarvanmuttu, Selva Kanagasabai, Delwyn Lappen and Trevor Meares have been pillars to lean-on with encouragement and support in more ways than one. When criticism was due, there were no Chinese whispers or corrosive rumours from these gents – if they thought the OBA could do better, they picked up the phone or emailed their thoughts with suggestions that could be acted upon. Note to self, do as they did!

My New Year resolutions, however, draw true inspiration from two past-presidents who accepted my invitation to serve in the Ex-Co. Thomian tradition has been that past-presidents would effectively go into retirement. As such, the decision by Past-President Oswald 'Pajjo' Silva and Past-President Chris Varney to come back into the Ex-co was truly unprecedented. To put it simply, the Ex-Co couldn't have sustained the efforts over these last two years, if we didn't have these two giants amongst us. Pajjo and Chris have made an immeasurable contribution to the Ex-Co's efforts and they've led by example and have been present at every event and meeting. They've brought their experience to the table without once using their own achievements as the standard. Their presence in the Ex-Co has been both humbling and motivational. Note to self, do as they did!

They didn't have to be past-Presidents to do what they did, they just had to be good Thomians. If all of us Thomians in Melbourne resolve to do as these gentlemen did, I'm sure that the incoming President and his team will take the OBA to greater heights. The Thomian calendar will once again be full of innovative and exciting events, the membership will grow and the four Thomian schools in Sri Lanka will benefit from the resurgence of the OBA in Australia.

Turning water to win - College Water-Polo team

The college Water-Polo team during the past few years have been doing well in the domestic season and winning the Royal-Thomian for the 4th consecutive year.

The coaching staff are gearing up for 2017, which they describe as 'a rebuilding phase'. Their main focus during the year is to identify talented young coaches and provide them with the necessary training and also focus on developing the age categories of Under-11 & Under 13. Their project last year to start an Under-13 team proved to be a success-at this year's junior Royal-Thomian game 4 players from that age category, representing STC. This year ended with a Junior Water-

Polo carnival on December 3rd at the college pool.

This old photograph was sent into the OBA by a lady who said:

I live in Melbourne and have, somehow, acquired three photographs of students. I'm not from Sri Lanka. I've had them for about 35yrs. I am now interest in finding out more these photographs. The only clues on these photographs are that they were taken around 1961 and the imprint on the board they are mounted on states Olga Studio, Mount Lavinia. According to the internet Mount Lavinia is in Sri Lanka. Being school photos and S.Thomas' College is in that city I am writing to you to find out if you or some older members of your association can recognise anyone in these photos or even if these photos are of your school.

An Interview with Prof. Indra de Soysa

- reprinted from the Ternion (OBA newsletter in CMB)

Professor Indra de Soysa (PhD) was the 18th Warden of S. Thomas' College Mount Lavinia. He served the College faithfully and accomplished much in his 3 years (2012 – 2014).

Q: Sir, can you please tell us a bit about yourself and your background?

A: As you know, I started my schooling in grade 1 at "Prep" and then transferred to STC Mt. Lavinia. We lived on Hotel road very close to college. Looking back, it was a great childhood

Q: What were your days in school like? What were the most memorable experiences you had?

A: You might have already gathered that I thought school was fun. I was not an exceptional student. However, I did volunteer for activities. The memorable moments in the lower school of course were the lower school plays and sports meets etc. I will never forget the nerves before going on stage. In those days, the college hall felt enormous. Moving from the lower school to the middle school was a big deal. I must say that we had some great teachers and some fairly weak ones. Funnily enough, age had no bearing on this. Some of the best teachers I had were very young, such as Richard de Zoysa, Ananda Rajapakse, and Rajiva Wijesinghe, but older teachers, such as Mr. EFC Pereira, Mrs. Rani Perera and Mr. LMV de Silva were also great teachers. I guess the common denominator here is that the good teachers managed to relate to us, to take us under their wing so to speak. The really bad teachers may have been very good at their subjects, but they failed to capture our imagination. In short, the good teachers had to capture our interest, and the way they did that was to be our friends. Let me leave this question at that...some of the most memorable moments, apart from Royal-Thomians, cycle parades, college fairs etc. I cannot fully own up to.

Q: Tell us a bit about your career and life after you left your Alma Mater

A: After finishing my A/levels, I had a chance to go and study in the USA, an opportunity that was facilitated to a great deal by Prof. Rajiva Wijesinghe. In this respect, I owe a great deal of gratitude to him. I initially studied history for my BA and MA and later moved to Political Science at the PhD level. This was at the University of Alabama. I found academics to be fun. In fact, I might even say I enjoyed the challenge and perhaps even became good at it. In many ways, the US system does indeed recognize hard work and effort (talent) and promising students are encouraged and rewarded. I found this to be refreshing. I had the good fortune of having a well renowned scholar, Prof. John O Neal, as my PhD advisor. I ended up writing a dissertation on the subject of "Foreign Direct Investment and Economic and Political Development, "which won the best dissertation award (the first for political science). I also won a prestigious scholarship from the United Nations University in Tokyo, Japan, and an offer of a job at the famous Peace Research Institute in Oslo (PRIO). In fact, I took my wife back to Norway. We ended up in Trondheim after a brief stint at the University of Bonn in Germany, where I was a senior researcher. I enjoy teaching and research and have published many research papers in the top journals within my field. I enjoy my research and collaboration with smart people from whom I learn.

Q: When you were in school, what did you want to be when you grew up? Did the thought of becoming Warden ever cross your mind?

A: The thought of being Warden never crossed my mind. The Wardenship in fact never seemed like a job to me. Wardens were like demi Gods, anointed from above. I had very few ambitions, looking back. I don't remember that careers or professions were ever discussed in school. Things are different today. Luckily for me, my parents seemed to encourage academia, perhaps I subconsciously gravitated towards that. To have been the Warden is one of my greatest honours.

Q: When you became Warden, what were the things you wanted to change about school?

A: I did not take on the task of being Warden with ideas of change for the sake of change. I wanted to come and learn first. The school has lasted for almost two centuries perfectly well. In fact, I expected the job to change me. However, one thing was clear, I wanted to approach the boys differently. I wanted to be an approachable, friendly Warden that encouraged boys to expect more of themselves. I wanted to be one of the teachers that related to them. I don't know if I succeeded but I would not have learnt about learning if I did not work closely with both teachers and students.

Q: Sir tell us a bit about your experiences as Warden of S. Thomas' College?

A: I have given you some long winded answers already, but if I was to summarize my short three years, I would say that I am still amazed by the volunteerism and enthusiasm of our old boys, the talents and enthusiasm of our teachers, and the love of the school displayed by our boys. I was deeply humbled by the dedication of others towards the school, which often made me look good.

Q: You always encouraged creativity and thinking out of the box. What does this bring out of students?

A: The Sri Lankan curriculum is generally good, but I used to tell the teachers to think of the syllabus as a skeleton, as just a guide, and supplement the syllabus. We had very smart, talented teachers, who were in fact underutilized. I encouraged the teachers to be creative. Given our rigid exam structures and emphasis on rote learning, creative teaching is the only way to get our boys excited about the subjects. It is this that would lead to creativity. Ultimately, building appreciation for a subject is far more important than focusing on passing an exam. I remember I got one of our old boys with a PhD from MIT and had just joined NASA to come speak to our teachers. He had actually failed his A levels. His point was simple---school, or simply chalk and talk, was boring.

Q: In your opinion, is it more important to hold on to tradition and the past or to just learn from the past and then let it go?

A: The past has its place. Sometimes, certain things become enshrined as a tradition, but on closer scrutiny is simply something that is manufactured to benefit someone or a few at the expense of others. Ultimately, our good sense needs to guide what we retain and discard.

Q: In your opinion, what is a 'Culture of Mutual Respect' and how important is it for the functioning of the College?

A: Respect is at the core of all socially- relevant learning. A school will not function efficiently without a culture of mutual respect. How can we teach boys to respect each other if we are slandering other people? Young boys pick up on these cues.

Heads of the school must earn the respect of others by being respectful themselves. A command culture does not work in today's world—that was the way of the British Raj, and vestiges of it remain. The trick is to get people to do things they would otherwise have been reluctant to undertake and reward them for their initiatives.

Q: Sir, you yourself were a champion sportsman. How did you balance your sports and studies? How important is it for students to balance sports and studies and how do you propose they do so?

A: I did not play Table Tennis to be a champion. I started playing on an old rickety table at the Mt. Lavinia YMCA. Sports should be enjoyed by all young boys. There are multiple benefits, both physical, and psychological. However, sport must also be social. If boys are pushed into sports and then pressured to win, you have already lost the plot. If you are enjoying the sport, the wins just come. Parents really need to understand this. Of course, if sports interfere with your studies in terms of time pressures etc., then one needs to prioritize studies. My reasoning is this---very very few of our boys will become professional sportsmen. Sports is one (perhaps fairly big) part of preparing for life. We must be realistic about this.

Q: In your opinion, how has the life of a school boy changed from the time you were in school?

A: I think much has changed in regular life in terms of making life busier, which I think is also true in terms of school life. However, there is a noticeable change in terms of how the school is run/approach to studies, and discipline. I am very encouraged by this.

Q: Sir, do you have a final message for the students and staff of S. Thomas'?

A: Yes, I miss them and wish them all the very best. The Thomian family, teachers, boys, parents and old boys are truly part of something great—our school, our alma mater.

To The President and Committee STC OBA:

Congratulations on a very successful Dance for 2016- It is up there with the very best that our OBA was able to execute.

The music and sound was the best put on for many years as the two Bands had chosen a mixture of songs to suit the occasion-

Aubrey Weinman guest artist from Colombo put on another good performance as he did last year.

The food was commended by many on the night: From where I set and glancing around a tick could be given for the excellent service:

Well done and take a bow for a excellent night-

Game, Set & Match

"Tennis isn't the most popular sport but the support has been very special and we even had people missing school to come support us at the finals."

Doubles title-winning captain, Sebastian Sansoni

The S. Thomas' College tennis team, led by Sebastian Sansoni, saw themselves through to the finals of the Public Schools' Under 19 championship. The under 19 title is the topmost prize on offer in Schools' Tennis and this fixture saw excitement and intense action with S. Thomas' and Colombo International School both putting on some impressive play.

The contest was intensified with both schools winning two games each coming into the final match of the five game tie. It all came down to the final tie where Avindra Perera of S. Thomas' faced off against Josua Jayaratne of CIS. The two-time Junior National Champion had no trouble however as he took the Thomians to a famous win.

The victory was made even more special by the fact that the last time the Thomians won this particular title was way back in 1995, making this a momentous occasion.

At National Schools Sports Festival final, S. Thomas' met St. Peter's College and it was the efforts of Viranka Fernando and Avindra Perera that enabled them to retain the title for yet another year.

The boys' title hunt has the active participation of heavyweights St. Peter's College, Royal College, Ananda College and Colombo International School in the top tier along with S. Thomas' College, making the Thomians' achievements this year pretty special.

To quote Sebastian: "Well, it was the first time we won the public school's tournament in 21 years so I would say that was a significant tournament for us. We were able to beat the toughest team twice which was indeed a great experience altogether. I believe that these tournaments and experiences have laid the platform from which Thomian tennis can excel to greater heights"

Blue & Black Fortune Thomian in Fortune's 2016 Top 50 Business Persons of the year

Featured in this year's list at position 34 is a Sri Lankan — Ajita Rajendra. Fortune states "In his four years as CEO of this Milwaukee-based maker of water heaters (A. O. Smith & CO), Rajendra has kept the company boiling hot, doubling profits and nearly tripling the company's stock price with strong growth in North America and China".

Ajita Rajendra is the son of M. Rajendra, who headed the Treasury in Sri Lanka in the sixties. He is also the nephew of former Minister M. Thiruchelvam. In contrast to today's world of scams, M. Rajendra was an old school public servant, reputed for his integrity and honesty to the extent that he reportedly refused to remit his sons full school fees to India because it would exceed the amount permitted by the prevailing laws!

Rajendra had his schooling at S Thomas' Mt. Lavinia and a Bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from the Indian Institute of Technology and an MBA from Carnegie-Mellon University, Pittsburgh, Pa. His distinguished career in S. Thomas' included a place in the schools Rugby team and Athletics team.

Ajita Rajendra joined A. O. Smith in January 2005. He was named as its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer on April 7, 2014, the ninth CEO in the company's history. His primary responsibilities include strategy development and implementation, profitability, and shareholder returns. He previously held the positions of President and Chief Executive Officer and President and Chief Operating Officer, responsible for A. O. Smith's water heater operations in North America, China, Europe, and India, as well as the company's water purification business in China and the Lochinvar global boiler business. He also serves on the board of other listed companies in the US.

A. O. Smith Corporation, with headquarters in Milwaukee (WISCONSIN), is a global leader applying innovative technology and energy-efficient solutions to products marketed worldwide. The company is one of the world's leading manufacturers of residential and commercial water heating equipment, offering a comprehensive product line in North America and China.

Thomian Spring Carnival

Dinner Dance on 12 Nov 2016 @ Hungarian Centre

For all we have and are

- Thomians, Royalists and Trinitians in Melbourne work with the Foundation of Goodness to help respond to the floods in Sri Lanka

The Flood Relief Appeal sent out on the 22nd of May was a collaborative effort by the S Thomas, Royal College and Trinity Old Boy Associations and 14 Bendigo Bank Branches across Melbourne.

The original target of 30 boxes of supplies for 100 families was smashed in record time and a total of 39 boxes were shipped today (2nd June).

The response from the Thomian fraternity, in particular, was generous and prompt. Several old Thomians from VIC, ACT, Perth, NSW and Qld chose to contribute funds, in lieu of dry goods. As a result, we collected over a $1100 that was used to purchase milk powder, lentils, canned fish and condensed milk.

Special thanks to:

 Ashley Wije - Ashley (an Old Thomian) was the catalyst for this relief effort and was instrumental in bringing together the three OBAs and the Bendigo Bank branches. Ashley works out of Bendigo Bank's Glen

- Melissa Compliance Manager at Thrifty Car and Truck rental Head Office who provided a Van free of rental charges to support the initiative. She has also provided a voucher for us to distribute.
 Please support those who support us, if anyone has a need to rent a car/truck!
- Bendigo Bank staff and customers who opened their hearts and donated generously to the cause.
- Local Business Owners particularly in Glen Waverley.

 Several people went to the extra effort to host a collection point at their own house over the weekend and invited their friends to support the cause. Special mention of Delani (from Decor by Delanie) and her friends who collected several boxes through this method.

The result: 39 cargo boxes of dry food, quality clothing bed linen, towels, shoes and essential toiletries to help the Foundation of Goodness achieve their goal of reaching out to a 100 flood affected families.

This was all achieved in only a week and a half! Amazing!
