MESSAGE

It gives me great pleasure to contribute this brief message to yet another annual tournament between the old boys of our two great schools on the lush fields of New South Wales. These unbroken tradition further endorse the mutual respect that has always prevailed among students of our hallowed Institutions.

The wealth of a nation is often reflected in its cultural diversity and ethnic harmony. There can be no stronger or finer binding force for that than the human relationships that emerge from this marvellous gentleman's game that we call cricket and our two schools continue to be a great example of that.

The age old adage "when that one great scorer comes to write against your name, he writes not that you won or lost, but how you played the game" has relevance both on and off the field and although much has changed over the years where the game itself is concerned, those noble values remain etched in time and continue to be scrupulously, upheld all by Royalists and Thomians.

As always may the winner show humility, the loser grace as the game holds its own above us all.

Have a truly great day.

We all stand as one to sing the anthems of Royal and STC far away from the Greenfields of our youth...

Random walks down memory lane, a Royal Thomian tradition enshrined in perpetuity

The Thomians were a mere 13 /3 and in deep trouble in the first innings when their star batsmen A.P.B Tennakoon (Attaya) walked in to bat. Royal hearts had been set alight as Thomian wickets tumbled. When Attaya was on 3 he skied a ball that came my way that was unfortunately grassed and he went onto to score 78 runs for STC. Had it not been for this sterling knock STC would have not won the Royal Thomian in 1964. If I thought that was going to be the end of my woes, I was in for a rude shock. A few overs later I was fielding alongside the boundary rope. When an inebriated Royalist physically dragged me over the boundary line and began to abuse me about the grassed catch. I was quite helpless and just as he was getting ready to physically harm me thankfully saner minds intervened and I was able to take my position on the field. At that time, in that era, it was over no sooner it happened. Nobody mulled about the incident. When I now look back I often wonder how different it would have been in this modern era. I must be the only player in the history of the Royal Thomian encounter who has had such an experience. I had to gather my wits quickly and get back into the game.

Soon after the match our Captain Shaw Wilson instructed the team to don their blazers which we did and we immediately walked across to the Thomian dressing room to congratulate them. It was a moving moment. We were not happy at our loss but Royal Thomian tradition and spirit had to be preserved and Shaw made sure that it was preserved. Later that night at the dinner for the two teams STC's Warden Davidson commented about Shaw's actions after the match.

Years later I visited Sri Lanka and went to the SSC grounds to see Sachin Tendulkar bat. As I entered the SSC I walked past two gentlemen who were amiably chatting away. As soon as I walked past them one shouted out to me, as I turned around he introduced me to his friend as the person who 'won' the 1964 Royal Thomian for STC! It was the Thomian Captain in 1964, Premalal Gunasekera, who had been chatting to Bertie Wijesinghe at the SSC.

The College Grounds: "Arena"; "Coliseum"; "Melting-pot"; "Waterloo"!! The measure of the 'health' and 'heart' of a school'. Here, more than anywhere else, is 'College Spirit' born, inculcated, nurtured, matured and displayed. Lifelong associations begin here, with 'friend' and 'foe' alike...for enmity lasts no longer than the fading echo of the Referee's whistle, the Umpire's "Stumps" or the crowd's applause. Here, eager, young eyes watch heroes excel and lesser mortals fall. Here one learns the true meaning of Kipling's: "If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster...And treat those two impostors just the same;" Here one develops a reverence for "Colossi" gone before and resolves not to be found wanting. Upon this 'field' will that 'One Great Scorer' stand; and we would do well to remember: "...when the One Great Scorer comes to mark against your name, he writes, not that you won or lost, but how you played the Game."

Barney Reid (STC) with his arms over Royalists Rajkumar Karunairatnam and Prasanna Kariyawasam's shoulders as they sing the Royal College anthem, as did many Thomians in the audience, such is the way special moments are made...

THE WAY WE WERE...

The year was 1965. At the conclusion of our traditional big match versus St Thomas', the Royal team was summoned by the Principal and told that reciprocal matches had been initiated with schools in Jaffna and as a first step, the school's cricket team was to proceed over the weekend, for an encounter with St. John's College.

So a team of 14 players, comprising of a Muslim captain, ten Sinhalese, two Tamils and one Burgher bundled into the Yal Devi the following Thursday, and arrived at the Jaffna railway station to a truly warm reception. Over the next two days we played some fascinating cricket before an unprecedented and enthusiastic crowd. A challenging declaration by our captain, on the second day, in the true spirit of the game, left the Johnians around 140 runs to make from 20 overs. Their talented players rose to the task, to take them to victory, much to the delight of the very appreciative crowd, and Jaffna had seen a great game of cricket, played to its highest traditions. Yes, time wasting tactics in the face of possible defeat were unheard of in those days!!

At the closing banquet that followed, the night air was filled with songs, in Tamil, Sinhala and English, with team members exhibiting their talents in solos and duets. The warm and generous hospitality continued into Sunday as well, before we were escorted to the railway station for a memorable send off, and as the train pulled out of the platform, there was not one dry eye in the Royal team!! S. Skandakumar (Hartley House 1959 – 1966)

A Royal Sporting moment enshrined for posterity with a promise...

My lasting memory of this match is my tumble and injury and the Royalists very generous gesture of not running me out!

The very special Umpiring by our Chief Guest , Barney Reid , and this must be a first for this or any Competition anywhere in the world, and the weather which held out, an achievement of its own, considering what went on in the rest of Sydney!

Special thanks to those who came from “far and wide” Melbourne and Brisbane Sri Bawan and David Garth to help us out.

Unfortunately on the day we were found wanting but not from lack of trying!.

The wet conditions did affect the ball and the runs scored as it did slow up in the outfield. batting honours went to Sri Bawan and Somesh Somasundaram who were the only batsmen who had the honour of retiring after reaching the set target .

On the whole our fielding was up to scratch and any runs conceded were earned by the batsman.

May we look forward to reversing the result next year.

Randolph Morrell (STC Classics Captain) 2015

There was a great display of sportsmanship on both sides. Early in the classics' game, star Thomian striker Randolph managed to find a good enough reason to stop for a quick forty winks midway during a run. As soon as Randolph hit the deck the Royalists in a show of great sportsmanship immediately went to his aid, ignoring an opportunity to run the batsmen out. Luckily for all, Randolph recovered, to continue his epic innings of 12 magnificent runs.

Early eighties Mackwoods were playing Aitken Spence in a vital Mercantile game on the BRC Matting. I led Mack while Spence were led by my friend & top Royal all-rounder of the early-mid sixties, Sugi (fondly called Sugga) Rajaratnam. We had many an enjoyable time off the field too reliving old tales, often arranged by that ubiquitous link man, late Lakshman(Laama) Thalaysingham.

We batted first. We lost an early wicket & I went in at 3. I was settling in pushing a few singles here & there, Sugga brought himself on I had faced him before in SSC/Tamil Union clashes. He had a curling inswinger which to me being a left hander was outswing. The first two swung early & I was able to leave them comfortably. The third came on middle & I was forced to play at it. It swung late, left me & went perilously close to the edge. I knew I hadn't edged it but I wouldn't have faulted the Ump had he given me out because my bat hitting the Mat made a sound & it was so darn close. I turned around but just as it thudded into the keeper's gloves everyone went up. It was very intimidating & most of the fielders even converged on the Ump who was unmoved, baying for the decision. I guessed many of them(if not all)may have been from the backwoods because they were chanting & ranting from the time I took guard. I must say the Ump was good, he could quite easily have given me out. Through all this I could see Sugga motionless in his follow through. Then suddenly he put his hands on hips & bellowed, “He is a Thomian, if he nicked it he would have walked. Now get back to your places you mutts”. I could see he was livid & those words still ring in my ears. This exemplified in no uncertain terms the brotherhood that exists between Royalists & Thomians.

We won in a close game & when I took my team to their Dressing Room as players of our time always used to do (I wonder whether it ever happens now) I found him still giving his boys a lecture on sportsmanship.

"Christie" was an institution at Royal College. An "all rounder" - one might call him, (studies, sports, teaching and as administrator). Following the family tradition

- (Four of his uncles EI, VR, DB. (Snr.) and HC (later CH.) represented Royal College. Christie was a perfectionist^ He had determination to study every aspect of subjects allotted to him - as a cricketer, coach, teacher, administrator. In the college cricket team he was a brilliant fieldsman. He also tried his hand at boxing in the class in his years at Royal, He demanded the highest standards. Discipline was No. 1. No coming to class with "fancy" male hairstyles or extended "side burns", Boys must be boys!) Christie entered Royal in 1935 and passed the London Matriculation Exam in 1942. Passing out from the University College (then) in 1949 he applied some of his stern principles as a member of the St. Joseph's College staff while Master-in-Charge. In this capacity St. Joseph's produced some of the finest cricket teams in the 1950s. I do not know what he felt like when St. Joseph's scored 467 for 9 wkts. (d) in 4 hours and defeated Royal by innings and 354 mns Royals biggest defeat ever (1952). Coach Malcolm Spittel thought highly of his organising ability.

To generations of Old Thomians Mrs Morrell was a second mother – a locum Parent. She knew each Boarder by name, House and dormitory and had an uncanny ability to read a student's mind. Her watchful eyes and experience would tell her when to intervene and when to turn a blind eye and as often was the case to give in a clear and loud tone a piece of her mind to any boy trying a “fast one” to “cut prep” or “cut school” or “cut detention”. She knew how to be strict without sacrificing her standards of compassion. She healed our wounds & cooled our fevered brows while nursing us through Chicken Pox, Jaundice, Mumps & Measles and many varied sports injuries. Often she would be awake all night nursing a patient and be back at work the next morning looking forward to the challenges of a new day.

Eardley Lievesz shares his memories about the spirit behind the Rama Sellamuttu Shield.

Rama played under me in Royal's second XI and I can vouch for the fact that he embodied those qualities that hold Royalists in good stead wherever they go.

Rama was stubborn, dogged and persevering, and never threw his wicket away. And as a tail ender he bolstered the total which made a difference in low scoring games.

Then and now, leg spin is the least preferred option of those who take up bowling. But it is a tribute to Rama's temperament and willingness to accept challenges that leg spin came naturally to him.

On many an occasion I would call upon Rama's leg spin to keep things tight or to get that vital breakthrough in close games.

School of Our Fathers

Thy spirit first to life awoke
In eighteen hundred and thirty five
Beneath the sway of Marsh and Boake
Thenceforth did Lanka's learning thrive (Refrain)

School where our fathers learnt the way before us
Learnt of books and learnt of men, through thee we'll do the same
True to our watchword "Disce Aut Discede"
We will learn of books and men, and learn to play the game (Refrain)

Within thy shade our fathers trod
The path that leads to man's estate;
They have repaid the debt they owed;
They kept thy fame inviolate. (Refrain)

And we their loyal sons now bear
The torch, with hearts as sound as oak;
Our lusty throats now raise a cheer
For Hartley, Harward, Marsh and Boake. (Refrain)

Thomians young and Thomians old,
Thomians staunch and true!
Rally round the College Flag,
The Blue, the Black and Blue
To your Alma Mater sing,
Thomians near and far
Loudly let the echoes ring,
For all we have and are. (Chorus)

Like the serpent keen and wise,
Harmless as the dove,
By the cross we're knit in one
Holy bond of love.
Loyal to our Church and state
Both in peace and war,
To the College we will sing
For all we have and are. (Chorus)

In the field of intellect
Many a prize we've won,
And upon the field of sport
Thomians yield to none.

*Esto Perpetua
Esto Perpetua
Esto Perpetua*

The Blue, Black and Blue forever!

Be it work, or be it play,
We will do and dare.
To the College therefore sing
For all we have and are. (Chorus)

We rejoice in victory,
When our foes we beat,
We have learnt, when fortune
frowns
How to take defeat,
All unfriendly rivalry
From our lives we bar
To the College therefore sing
For all we have and are. (Chorus)

When into the world we go
For our life's career,
As the call of duty sounds,
We will answer clear
Onward to the goal we press,
Guided by our star.
To the College therefore sing
For all we have and are. (Chorus)
